

Contract Therapist, Part time

To apply, email a cover letter detailing your availability along with a resume to brenda@borderlandrainbow.org.

The Borderland Rainbow Center (BRC) is a small non-profit agency in central El Paso, Texas that serves as the region's only LGBTQ Community Center. We provide LGBTQ affirming therapy on a sliding scale, peer-support groups, a food pantry, workshops and training for the community, and a variety of other social and educational activities in a drug-and alcohol-free environment.

We are experiencing a growth spurt and we are seeking two Licensed Therapists to work on a contract basis. This is a grant-funded position starting in October or November 2019. We will be serving clients who have suffered sexual trauma of many kinds. The program integrates modern therapeutic modalities with traditional healing approaches from Mexican, Mexican-American, Indigenous, and African-American traditions.

Qualifications include:

- professional liability insurance in the El Paso, Texas area
- bilingual (English/Spanish) and able to deliver therapy in Spanish
- professional license in good standing (LPC, LCSW, Psychologist, etc.)
- demonstrable familiarity with working with LGBTQ clients
- therapy skills and/or certifications for working with trauma (such as EMDR, Trauma focused-CBT, Art and Expressive therapies for trauma, etc.)
- some availability evenings and/or weekends

Highly preferred:

- identify as part of the LGBTQ+ community
- identify as Mexican American, Latinx, Latina, Latino, African American, Indigenous, or American Indian
- familiarity with traditional healing methods or modes of the above listed cultures
- openness to working with healers using dance, visual arts, writing, spirituality and other modes for healing clients
- present as male (one position only)

Therapists will work with the Healing Sexual Trauma in the Borderland program funded by TAASA. To refer clients for healing workshops or therapy supported by these funds, please contact brenda@borderlandrainbow.org
